Piazzetta Allegra

The crystal ship

"Pannelli in vetro", Emilio Tadini, Hall

The classically elegant and beautiful Costa Allegra is a modern craft that lets in plenty of light, which has earned it the nickname "the crystal ship".

Its Italian feel, easily recognisable in the neo-classical design, is enlivened by baroque touches in the interiors and bright décor that recalls the great painters such as Gauguin, Degas and Matisse. Another of the ship's features is the spectacular, sumptuously stylish Montmartre Restaurant with its splendid terrace overlooking the sea.

After recent improvement work on the ship, cruising is even more enjoyable, thanks to the addition of new facilities (including two more restaurants and a new bar) and the extension of the Caracalla Spa.
